Los Angeles Chargers #21 La Danian Tomlinson rushing for his 5th TD of the game on the games last play, putting him in the league of the elites with 16 TD’s in the last three games as the Chargers clinch the AFC title for the first time against the Titans 42-27!

(Memphis, TN May 17, 2019). There are some rising teams in the Long Island Electric Football League who are the beneficiaries of an amazing 2018 Draft. In a bruising game led by a relentless Los Angeles Chargers front line, the Long Island Electric Football League's #14 Ranked Los Angeles Chargers (8-2) (73-69 All-Time), are going to the Super Bowl XIV! It is their first ever Super Bowl after beating the #1 seeded LIEFL #21 Ranked Indianapolis Colts (5-3) (64-87-All-time) 44-38 in OT, and the LIEFL #31 Ranked Tennessee Titans (6-3) (31-18), 42-27!

The game's MVP was Charger running back LaDanian Tomlinson, who rushed for a strong 108 yards with 5 touchdowns and another TD with his 100-yard kickoff return against that tough Tennessee defense! The Chargers came out fighting on the first drive holding the Titans (6-3) to a field goal on the opening drive. Tennessee had to play with their backs against the wall the entire game.

Before this game, Tennessee Titan running back Lorenzo Neal, last week's hero against the LIEFL #24 Ranked New England Patriots (5-4) (62-76) 31-21, gave payback to New England after the Patriots beat Tennessee in the 2016 AFC Championship Game 21-17, to advance to LIEFL Super Bowl XII, eventually losing to the NFC's Detroit Lions, 42-17!

Neal finished the game as a strong utility back rushing for 91 yard and one touchdown, a 56 yarder. For the Chargers this road began with four straight regular season victories beating Denver, Miami, Kansas City, and Philadelphia. Their two losses came to Kansas City 24-21, and the New York Jets 17-14. After trouncing Baltimore in the Wild Card Game 35-19, and the Colts, the Chargers set out to break records. Tomlinson had a total 16 touchdowns in the three playoff games with 1,107 total all-purpose yards. Tomlinson is putting up OJ Simpson-like numbers, when Simpson had his Super Bowl run last year and record setting season in 2017. It is hard not to compare the similarities.

The determined Tomlinson had runs of 8, 52, 1, 11, and 11 for touchdowns as well as kick returns of 92, 38, 99, 79, and 100-yards! He had 513 all-purpose yards on the day. A big tackle by Junior Seau in the closing kick-off drive for the Titans had the Charger offense unresponsive to close out the 4rth quarter.

The Chargers will face the almighty NFC Los Angeles Rams (7-1), or the Carolina Panthers (7-1) in Super Bowl XVI. The Chargers match up well Against the two top defenses in the game. The Rams gave up 61 points during the regular season, and the Panthers gave up 67 to the Chargers 90.
