IT'S ALL GIANTS AS THEY ADVANCE TO NFC CG WITH UPSET WIN OVER PANTHERS 14-7!

The NY Giants line up at the three yard line as Giant, Tiki Barber (21) scores from the one yard line as they beat the top seeded Carolina Panthers 14-7 to advance to the NFC Championship game for the first time since 1976!

(Charlotte, North Carolina). July 2, 2008. The Long Island Electric Football League #9 Ranked New York Giants (6-3) (81-70), held true to their mission after taking second place in the 32-Team Throwback Tournament, falling just short of the prize, losing to the Jets 7-0. In today's LIEFL NFC championship game, the Giants left it all on the board against a very tough LIEFL #28 Ranked Carolina Panther (7-1) (30-27), team.

This Giant team beat an imposing Panther front line led by starting All-Pro Guard, Kris Jenkins. Leonard Marshall just proved to be too much in the middle throughout the tournament. The Giants are coming off of a thumping victory over the tough LIEFL #10 Ranked New Orleans Saints (76-72), 24-21, in the Round 1 Wild Card Game. Giants Running Back Tiki Barber rushed for 141 yards in that game and the Giant defense rallied to hold Saints star Running Back Reggie Bush to 55 yards on 11 carries.

In this game the Carolina Panthers scored first with a touchdown pass from 2 yards out from Quarterback David Carr to a player who caught only one pass all season, DeAngelo Williams. The Giants were not going to wait long to score. The Giant front line sent the Panthers an early message that the game would go the distance play for play as Giant Running Back Tiki Barber scored from one yard out. Barber went 10 for 73 in the game with a touchdown, his fourth touchdown of the post season.

The Panthers wouldn't see the end zone again as the Giant Linebackers behind the awesome from line made stops against Panther's DeShaun Foster each time. All-Pro Lawrence Taylor led the way for the Giants as they pressured the Panthers offense to make mistakes. Plaxico Burris caught a spiral from Giant Quarterback Eli Manning to seal the Panthers fate with a minute to go in the game on a 25-yard touchdown pass.

BIG BLUE, New York Giants Football, marched through the Carolina Panthers today 14-7, as they advance for the first time since 1976 to face the LIEFL #16 Ranked Detroit Lions (66-72), in the NFC Championship Game in their quest for a Long Island Electric Football Super Bowl win. That 1976 game that they lost to Chicago Bears 7-6, in the old AFL Championship Game was relative for the time, and this Giant team has a fierce defense.

The New York Giants (7-3) and Detroit Lions (7-2), match-up in the NFC Championship Game should be a spectacular game.
